

Lucid Air Model Line Updates Offer Customers More Freedom with the Power of Choice and Greater Flexibility

December 5, 2023

The Air lineup now consists of four models:

- Air Pure, recently added to Car and Driver's esteemed 10Best List, with an EPA-estimated range of 419 miles+, from $77,400++.
- Air Touring adds all-wheel drive, more performance, and over 400 miles of range, from $85,900++.
- Air Grand Touring with all-wheel drive and projected to remain the longest-range electric car on the market.
- Air Sapphire, the world's first electric super-sports sedan, with 427 miles of EPA-est. range and a 0-60 mph time of under two seconds.

NEWARK, Calif., Dec. 5, 2023 /PRNewswire/ -- Lucid Group, Inc. (NASDAQ: LCID), pioneering a new era of luxury electric experience with the Lucid Air, today announced updates to the Air lineup to offer customers greater flexibility to configure vehicles with the features that matter most to them. The lineup is anchored by the Air Pure, priced from $77,400++, and the Air Touring, which now starts at $85,900++.

"This transforms the flexibility and choice for our customers while highlighting Lucid's commitment to continuous improvement of the world's most advanced and dynamic electric vehicles," said Peter Rawlinson, CEO and CTO of Lucid. "By listening to owners and prospective customers, I'm delighted that we can now provide such compelling choices. For example, it's now possible to order an Air Pure with massaging seats or even an Air Grand Touring with a metal roof."

The Lucid Air can be ordered immediately at a starting price of $77,400++ for Air Pure. With efficiency, technology, performance, and luxury, the four models – all featuring sleek and sporty exterior design and luxurious, spacious interiors – are now streamlined across powertrain and battery-based selections resulting in a simplified offering.

Lucid's continuous customer focus means the Lucid Air lineup includes newly available features across the board. Providing the freedom to configure a personalized luxury experience, the lineup also includes a wider range of interior and exterior color options including the widely popular Stealth Appearance, now available at a more accessible price, and expanded availability of Fathom Blue paint (excluding Sapphire).

Customers can further enhance their Lucid Air with new Comfort & Convenience Packages as extra-cost options for the Air Pure and Air Touring. (The content is standard for the Lucid Air Grand Touring and Sapphire.)

For the Air Pure, the Comfort & Convenience Package adds:

- Heated steering wheel
- Heated rear seats
- Soft-close doors
- Four-zone climate control
- Power rear window sunshades

For the Air Touring, the Comfort & Convenience Package adds all of the above plus:

- Power open and close frunk
- Heated precision wipers
