Peter Rawlinson:

Hello everyone. It's Peter here at our Lucid Headquarters in Silicon Valley where things are absolutely buzzing with activity, and I'm about to head off to Arizona where we continue to put the finishing touches on the Lucid Air at our purpose-built factory.

Now, I'm speaking to you today with a very special reminder for all those Churchill Capital IV shareholders who are out there. It's really important that you exercise your right to vote regarding the proposed merger transaction between CCIV and Lucid Motors, 'cause every single investor vote counts.

So whether you are a Robinhood trader (with those Diamond Hands!) or managing your portfolio via your personal broker, we encourage you to vote now. The deadline to submit your vote is 11:59 PM Eastern time on Wednesday, July the 21st.

To vote you can follow the proxy instructions you received. It just takes moments, and you can even vote online or via a toll-free number with the instructions here.

Thanks so much for making your vote count.

Actual events and circumstances are difficult or impossible to predict and will differ from assumptions. Many actual events and circumstances are beyond the control of Lucid and CCIV. These forward-looking statements are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties, including changes in domestic and foreign business, market, financial, political and legal conditions; the inability of the parties to successfully or timely consummate the proposed transactions, including the risk that any required regulatory approvals are not obtained, are delayed or are subject to unanticipated conditions that could adversely affect the combined company or the expected benefits of the proposed transactions or that the approval of the shareholders of CCIV or Lucid is not obtained; the outcome of any legal proceedings that may be instituted against Lucid or CCIV following announcement of the proposed transactions; failure to realize the anticipated benefits of the proposed transactions; risks relating to the uncertainty of the projected financial information with respect to Lucid, including conversion of reservations into binding orders; risks related to the timing of expected business milestones and commercial launch, including Lucid’s ability to mass produce the Lucid Air and complete the tooling of its manufacturing facility; risks related to the expansion of Lucid’s manufacturing facility and the increase of Lucid’s production capacity; risks related to future market adoption of Lucid’s offerings; the effects of competition and the pace and depth of electric vehicle adoption generally on Lucid’s future business; changes in regulatory requirements, governmental incentives and fuel and energy prices; Lucid’s ability to rapidly innovate; Lucid’s ability to deliver Environmental Protection Agency (“EPA”) estimated driving ranges that match or exceed its pre-production projected driving ranges; future changes to vehicle specifications which may impact performance, pricing, and other expectations; Lucid’s ability to enter into or maintain partnerships with original equipment manufacturers, vendors and technology providers; Lucid’s ability to effectively manage its growth and recruit and retain key employees, including its chief executive officer and executive team; Lucid’s ability to establish its brand and capture additional market share, and the risks associated with negative press or reputational harm; Lucid’s ability to manage expenses; Lucid’s ability to effectively utilize zero emission vehicle credits; the amount of redemption requests made by CCIV’s public shareholders; the ability of CCIV or the combined company to issue equity or equity-linked securities in connection with the proposed transactions or in the future; the outcome of any potential litigation, government and regulatory proceedings, investigations and inquiries; and the impact of the global COVID-19 pandemic on Lucid, CCIV, the combined company’s projected results of operations, financial performance or other financial metrics, or on any of the foregoing risks; and those factors discussed in the Form S-4, CCIV’s Annual Report on Form 10-K/A for the year ended December 31, 2020 and CCIV’s Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2021, in each case, under the heading “Risk Factors,” as well as other documents of CCIV filed, or to be filed, with the SEC. If any of these risks materialize or our assumptions prove incorrect, actual results could differ materially from the results implied by these forward-looking statements.
